2. Agenda

2.1 Item No. 1 : Reframing of the Ph.D. Coursework Syllabi

The Chairperson welcomed the members and highlighted the need to revise and reframe the Paper I (Research Methodology) and Paper II (Recent Advances in the Statistics) of Ph.D. coursework syllabi in line with the latest academic requirements, research priorities, and the University regulations governing doctoral programmes. The committee deliberated extensively on content of the coursework.

The committee reviewed the existing syllabi and observed that the curriculum should be updated to incorporate recent developments in research methodology, academic writing, publication ethics, research integrity, data analysis techniques.

After detailed deliberations, the committee made the following recommendations:

- The Ph.D. coursework syllabi shall be revised to reflect current developments in the respective disciplines and contemporary research practices.
- The course on Research Methodology and research ethics.

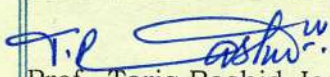

Resolution:

The Departmental Research Committee unanimously approved the proposal to reframe the Ph.D. coursework syllabi incorporating the recommendations made during the meeting. The committee finalized the revised syllabi implementation from the Cycle -II -2025 and onwards

It was also resolved that the concerned supervisor will frame the syllabus for Paper III (specialized paper) based on individual requirement of the topic of Ph.D.

The meeting ended with a note of thanks to the chair.
